JULY—Gedey received by

j20. D. BUGBEE & CO.

City & Courier.

Reported for the Daily Whig

Union State Convention.

The great Union Convention of the State assembled in Norombeba Hall yesterday, and was the largest and most enthusiastic assembly of the kind ever held in this State. The Hall was overflowing at an early hour. The city was crowded by delegates the night before, and every conveyance swelled the throng up to the hour of meeting. The Kennebec and other delegations from the west came in an extra train of nine crowded cars, yesterday morning, and marched up to the Hall headed by the Gardiner Brass Band, Mr. McDonald, Leader.

The old Jameson Democratic party was quite largely represented, and came up earnestly to support the new Union movement. The best of feeling existed, all parties being bent only upon doing their business promptly, nominating the best man for the occasion, and giving the candidate, whoever he might be, an overwhelming majority at the polls in September.

At a little before 11 o'clock, Hon. Jas. G. Blaine of Augusta, Chairman of the State Committee, called the Convention to order in the name of the Union and the loyal masses, and read the call.

Upon Mr. Blaine's nomination, Hon. Jas G. McCobb of Portland, was called to the chair temporarily. Mr. McCobb thanked the convention for the unexpected honor in a few pertinent remarks.

Messrs Chas. A. Miller of Rockland and J. D. Pulsifer of Auburn were made temporary Secretaries.

On motion of Hon. Leonard Andrews of York, a committee on credentials, composed of one from each county, was appointed by the chair, as follows:

York, Marshall Pierce
Oxford, Hall Walker
Cumberland, Luther Billings
Waldo, Hiram Pierce.
Franklin, H. N. Hall.
Androscoggin, J. B. Ham.
Kennebec, G. Rowell
Somerset, J. F. J. Peel.
Sagadahoc, Elisha Clark
Lincoln, Joe Clark
Knox, E. H. Spear.
Penobscot, John Benson
Piscataquis, C. H. B. Woodbury
Hancock, A. B. Simpson.
Washington, Joe Gunnison
Aroostook, A. G. Fogg

On motion of Colonel Elliot of Brunswick, a committee on permanent organization was appointed, as follows

York, Joseph Hanson.
Cumberland, Daniel Elliot
Oxford, Timothy Walker.
Franklin, Jos. Rust.
Androscoggin, Wm Lowell.
Kennebec, John W. May.
Somerset, Moses Littlefield.
Sagadahoc, John Hayden.
Waldo, Putnam Simonton.
Washington, I. Sargent
Aroostook, W. F. Hopkinson.
Hancock, H. M. Hall.
Piscataquis, Moses W. Brown
Penobscot, C. P. Stetson.
Knox, Isaac Hobbs.
Lincoln, J. G. Hobson.

The chair suggested that a committee on resolutions should be appointed by county delegations.

Mr. Nye of Waterville said the crowded state of the convention would make it almost impossible for the county delegations to meet separately, and moved that the committee be appointed by the chair.

After some discussion, it was decided best to appoint the committee more directly from the people, and the delegations were notified to meet immediately after adjournment for the purpose of presenting one name for each county.

In the absence of the various committees, Lewis Barker, Esq., of Exeter, was loudly called for, and came forward, saying that it didn't seem this morning as if we were going to let the "wayward sisters" depart in peace. He was happy in presence of such a glorious demonstration of pure Union sentiment. When the first gun was fired at Fort Sumter, all party ties were destroyed. Mr. Douglas then said that there were but two parties, those of patriots and traitors, and the speaker found no difficulty in deciding which was the Had Mr. Douglas been elected President, he would have fought this rebellion to the death. So would he do under any other administration. If Breckenridge had been elected he would have sustained him in putting down any rebellion against his legal authority.

But it makes a great deal of difference with some who steal the name of Democrats, whose ox is being gored. If the abolitionists had rebelled against the government, these peace fellows wouldn't have turned up their eyes in horror at the hanging of Garrison and Phillips and even Greeley. Yet they are working now for the success of our enemies. He would uphold the government of his country through thick and thin. He wouldn't have been here to-day had he thought they met simply to nominate a candidate for Governor. We are here, he said, to demonstrate to our noble armies in the field, that we are with them in sentiment, and mean to support them. We are here to crush the copperhead faction—a pack of guerillas who have stole the livery of Democracy for evil designs.—(Applause and Laughter.) If a Democrat comes here merely as a Democrat, I spurn him,—if a Republican comes here, I do the same—but if you come as Union men without condition, I am with you and welcome you. (Applause.)

We shall succeed in this war. The great States of Virginia and North Carolina, and the little pettifogging member South Carolina, and all the others, shall be brought back and take the noble stand of glorious old Missouri who is ahead of her more northern sisters in the emancipation movement. All the States shall be brought together in a happy Union, and then woe to those peace men who are doing all they can to destroy the country which has fostered them. (Loud applause.)

Mr. Hammatt of Howland moved that when the Convention adjourned it be to 2 o'clock, which was carried.

Mr. Eastcott of Bangor said that Portland had honored herself by capturing the first rebels on the coast of Maine, and they wanted to hear from her through an eloquent citizen, John T. Gilman, Esq., of the Portland Press.

Mr. Gilman was received with enthusiasm.—He said that Portland did not claim to distinguish herself in words, but in action. He then recounted the transactions and capture of the pirates, in their harbor, and said the people of that city were going to capture another pirate crew next September—not a southern crew, but meaner and more cowardly (Applause.) A friend of his had said that at a neighboring city the pirates might capture the shipping, but they would never sack the place, as in their (the rebels) estimation there were ten faithful traitors—enough for its salvation. (Laughter.) He trusted Portland would never be saved on such grounds as that—better far that it be destroyed. Though he feared his city was not free from these enemies, he trusted the people would always do their duty as they always had done it.

At the conclusion of Mr. Gilman's remarks, three hearty cheers were given for Portland.

On motion of Mr. Goodwin of York, voted to proceed to ballot for candidate for Governor at 2½ o'clock.

Adjourned.

The hour had now arrived for balloting for candidate for Governor. A committee was appointed as follows, to receive, sort and count the votes:

McMahon of Eddington, Clay of Gardiner, Nye of Fairfield, Totman of Rockland, Spring of Portland.

Before the convention proceeded to ballot, Mr. Blaine of Augusta, rose and stated that he was authorized by Hon. Abner Coburn, Governor of the State, to say that he fully appreciated and sympathized with the great movement to unite all the loyal men of Maine in one harmonious organization—a movement so auspiciously inaugurated by the vast assemblage collected here today. That feeling thus, and wishing to do all in his power to promote union of action among loyal men, regardless of past party differences, the Governor did not consider that his nomination a year ago by a somewhat different constituency, gave him any priority of precedence at the hand of this convention. He therefore claimed none, but simply submitted his name to the consideration of the convention. If nominated he would endeavor to faithfully serve the public interests. But if it should be adjudged a wise policy to take another candidate, he would cheerfully and most cordially unstrike him by his vote and with never influence he might possess—The perils of our national crisis demand, in the Governor's view, a union of all patriotic hands and hearts, and the man should be chosen for our standard bearer who can make this union most cordial and effective. With this brief statement of the views of the Governor, he left the matter to the decision of the convention.

Such a crowd was present in the Hall that it was impossible to take the ballot in the house, and Mr. Blaine proposed that the committee be stationed on the outside, and receive the votes as all the delegates passed out, which plan was adopted.

While the committee were out, Hon F. A. Pike of Calais, was called for and said that the benefits of the hour are to be fought at home, as well as on Southern soil. In this hour the only word he had for the loyal masses of Maine was to persevere in their patriotic purpose. In clouds and darkness the old Pine Tree State had always held up her head, and they will stand up the same, and not have it said that they shrank in the hour of danger. He had confidence that she would lead off in achieving the victory which is sure to follow our efforts.

Mr. Vinton of Grey, being called upon, said it was due the gentlemen called upon for speeches to say that the Hall was so crowded it was impossible to speak without suffering, even for five minutes. And besides there was little to be said in time for action. The great aim is war, war, war, to the end, and that was all he had to say.

Mr. Richmond of Winthrop, said the Republicans of Maine have always stood by the Government and the Union in all circumstances as above party, and under whatever lead they will continue in the same course. But their opponents of the peace wing have taken every occasion to cripple the Government. All the Major Generals, except Fremont and Banks, are Democrats—yet the Republicans have supported them by every means in their power. But the moment old Democrats like Ben Butler, the two Sherman's, Grant and others are appointed Maj. Generals in the Union army, and even Brig Generals like Gen. F. Shepley, they are thrown out and denounced by these copperhead factionists as abolitionists. We came here to show up this copperhead set.

The speaker was glad to see old Whigs and Democrats who have fought each other before, standing upon one common platform in sustaining the Union. This is a trial hour of the patriotism of the Democracy. He was sorry so many of them deserted the Union ranks in Ohio, where they had denounced Gov. Tod a Union Democrat, and gone over to Vallandigham, a man who should be in a penitentiary or pulling hemp. (Laughter and applause.) These copperheads have put him up for Governor, and of course he will be sunk deeper than ever. (Voice "He runs well") Yes by the aid of the Government (Laughter.) Now we have got the great issue of union or disunion before us, and we must be vigilant, and be guarded against the enemy at home as well as South—we must sink them in public estimation so deep that no political party can ever resurrect them.

He proceeded at some length to amuse the convention with anecdotes illustrating the ridiculous position of the copperhead party.

Mr Jewett of Belfast congratulated the people on the coming together of this great Union Convention—the first of the kind ever held in the State. Two years ago, when the first blood was spilled at Baltimore, he had declared his purpose to belong to no party except the great party of the country, under whatever leaders, till this accursed rebellion was crushed. (Applause.)

He was in Portland two years ago, when John W. Dana was trying to get the Douglas Committee to desert the country and demand the withdrawal of the Union army from Virginia. On that occasion they introduced a Mr Jackson of Mississippi, to get his opinion of how New England would be treated if Jeff Davis should be so successful as to present his bogus constitution at Washington. Moses McDonald examined this secessionist as he would a witness in court, and Jackson gave it as his opinion that in that case probably New England would not be received at all. (Sneers and sensation.)—When they arrived at this point, the speaker said that he, having sat through two hours of this disgraceful scene, was immediately upon the floor, and told them that Jeff Davis was the chief of pirates, and thenceforth he would labor with all his power to have him and all who supported him in Maine, hanged. (Loud applause.) He had gone on in that course ever since, and he calculated to take this same ground hence forth to the end of this contest.

Mr. Jewett then gave way for the report of the committee to count votes for a candidate for Governor.

The following was the result of the first ballot for a Gubernatorial candidate:

Whole number of ballots,	1083
Necessary to choice,	542
Hon Abner Coburn had	418
Hon Joseph Williams of Augusta,	170
Hon Samuel Cony of Augusta,	474
Jim Howard,	12
Hon J A Peters,	2
John S Tenney,	1

There was no choice.

Hon B W Norris of Skowhegan said he was authorized to withdraw the name of Gov Coburn, whereupon Gov. Coburn was most loudly cheered. He further proposed to nominate Hon Samuel Cony by acclamation.

After some little discussion, it was concluded to proceed to a second ballot, which result as follows:

Whole number of ballots	991
Necessary to a choice.	496
Hon. Samuel Cony had	800
Hon. Joseph B. Williams,	66
Hon. Abner Coburn,	26

Hon. Samuel Cony of Augusta was declared the nominee of the convention, and the nomination was made unanimous.

John P Gilman, Esq., of Portland, from the committee on resolutions reported as follows:

Resolved, That in the critical and momentous period of the country's history, it is the solemn duty of all loyal and patriotic citizens to take a firm stand in favor of the National Administration, in conducting the war against rebellion, and vindicating the authority of the Union through out its entire domain.

Resolved, That in sustaining the National authority in this war for the salvation of the Union and the rights of man, we make no disorganizing opposition to the policy and measures of the Government, but unite as one man in sustaining its civil and military policy and measures, without qualification or reservation, and upon this issue there can be but two parties—patriots and traitors.

Resolved, That those assemblages of Northern citizens, who, wishing to make a diversion in favor of the rebellion, have feigned excessive indignation at the few arrests of persons engaged in discouraging the organization of a military force to defend the Constitution, while they have expressed no execration against the foe now invading the free States, and no commiseration for our fellow-citizens who have been robbed of their property and driven from their homes by a lawless band of conspirators against the Republic; have shown such misdirected sympathies, and such utter lack of the first instincts of patriotism, as to make them dangerous counsellors in the present crisis of the country.

Resolved, That Hon HANNIBAL HAMLIN, Vice President of the United States, and our two Senators in Congress, be requested to repair immediately to Washington for the purpose of urging upon the President the importance and necessity of placing along the coast a sufficient naval and military force to protect the commerce of the country from piratical depredations of the rebels, and to have the same accomplished in such manner as shall be most efficient and expeditious.

Resolved, That our brave soldiers and sailors, who, in the field and upon sea are upholding the unity and glory of our common country, deserve and will receive the gratitude of every patriotic heart, and we urge upon our National and State authorities the most generous recognition of their heroic services and sacrifices.

Resolved, That Hon. ABNER COBURN has earned the reputation of a faithful, impartial and upright executive—true to every trust reposed in him—and eminently worthy of the confidence and respect of his fellow citizens.

Resolved, That Hon. HAMNIL CONY, of Augusta, our nominee this day, by his ability, his established fidelity as a public man, and, above all, his uncompromising loyalty to the Government against its struggle with armed rebellion, is entitled to and will receive the support of a vast majority of the patriotic citizens of Maine.

After the nomination of Judge Cony had been ratified in the Convention, Mr Blaine of Augusta, being loudly called for, responded for the nominee as his townsman, friend and neighbor. He pledged Judge Cony as a true, tried, loyal and high-toned man—of popular bearing and with every quality of head and heart needed by an executive in these troublous times. He predicted his election by an overwhelming majority.

Mr Jewett took the floor again, and said he was happy to join with the gentleman (Mr Blaine) in congratulating the people on this auspicious occasion. He would join hands with him, whom he had formerly fought in politics, in giving force to this movement, and he rejoiced to thank them for the nomination they had made. It cannot now be said that the Republicans, having nominated a life-long Democrat, are trying to cheat the Democrats in this new organization. (Loud applause.) He then proceeded at some length in favor of prosecuting the war to the end of destroying the rebel government at whatever sacrifice.

Mr Richmond of Winthrop, moved that the thanks of the convention be presented to the Gardiner Band for their services in enlivening the convention with music during the day.—Agreed to.

On motion of Mr Blaine of Augusta, the convention adjourned, resolving to give the Copperhead Democracy an overwhelming defeat at the polls in September.

We venture to say that a convention never assembled in this State with better purposes and with such universally satisfactory results, and the majority which all are determined to give to the nominee will attest the wisdom of its action.

THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1863.

UNION NOMINATION.

FOR GOVERNOR.

SAMUEL CONY.

The Union State Convention.

We present in our columns to-day the proceedings of the Union State Convention held in this city yesterday. It was the largest and most enthusiastic nominating convention ever held in the State. The appearance of nearly thirteen hundred delegates testified to the earnest zeal with which the loyal people of Maine are prepared to come up to the support of the government in this hour of national trial and national peril. The sentiment of the Convention was that all former political ties, whether as Republicans or as Democrats, should be ignored in the battle for the country—and there was but one feeling of determined devotion to the country's cause. In this spirit Gov. Coburn nobly withdrew any claims for a renomination on the score of his former nomination and election, thus proving himself to be an earnest, zealous and disinterested friend of his country, and ready to ignore all selfish considerations in the great contest which we have this year to wage with the secession sympathizers in this State. He received a very large and handsome vote on the first ballot; but a plurality appearing for another candidate, his friends, by unanimous consent, withdrew his name promptly and handsomely, and pledged their earnest and undivided support to the candidate nominated by the Convention as the exponent of the united Republican and Union Democratic strength of the State. That candidate is Hon. Samuel Cony of Augusta—an earnest, active and determined Union man from the first day of the rebel assault upon our government—an uncompromising supporter of the government—and although formerly a Democrat, yet entirely identified with the supporters of the Republican administration ever since the war began.—The Republicans of Augusta have shown their confidence in him by sending him as one of their representatives to the Legislature—and no man has given a more unreserved and determined support to the National and State administrations from the commencement of the war. Our space to day will not permit more extended comments upon the nomination. It was made and received in the most harmonious spirit—Gov. Coburn's friends coming forward on the second ballot in the most magnanimous manner and throwing their entire vote for Judge Cony, as the candidate who had received a plurality on the first ballot.

Testimonial to a Noble Woman.

We have received a copy of a subscription paper signed by officers of the Maine 17th, at Camp Sickles, Va., by which they raise the handsome sum of $125 as a testimonial of their appreciation of the arduous and self-sacrificing labors of Mrs. CHARLOTTE MCKAY among the sick and wounded of our camps and hospitals—Mrs. McKay is a sister of our townsman, Samuel Johnson, Esq., (although a resident of Massachusetts) and is well known through this State.

The following is Mrs. McKay's reply:

1st Division 3d A. C. Hospital,
June 8th, 1863.

Major West—Sir:

Permit me to express to you, and through you to the officers of your regiment, who have so kindly manifested their regard for me, my most sincere thanks for their generous gift.

The paper alone, expressive of their appreciation of my efforts in behalf of our sick and wounded soldiers, would have more than compensated for these efforts.

The donation of money I freely accept, knowing that it is freely given. But money so received I cannot appropriate to common uses. I will therefore, by your and their permission, purchase with so much of it as may be required, some suitable token to be sacredly cherished in remembrance of a regiment which I have so much reason to esteem and honor, and devote the remainder to alleviate in some way the suffering occasioned by the war. Allow me to say here that I cannot look on anything do in the light of self sacrifice, or as requiring compensation. You noble officers, and the brave men you lead to the battle field, risk your lives in a cause as sacred and as vital in all its bearings and as dear to me as it is to you, and when disabled by sickness or wounds they are brought to the hospital, all I can do for them involves slight hardship by suffering in comparison with what they endure. The only feeling I have in view of what I can accomplish is regret that I cannot do more.

With sentiments of gratitude never to be effaced to those who have contributed to this very gratifying testimonial, I remain

Very truly your friend,
C. E. McKAY.

BAND CONCERT. The Band will play in East Market Square this evening.

Mr. Editor,

Three or four hundred voters of Vassalboro' were assembled yesterday to see if the town would vote to pay drafted men $300 to enable them to stay at home, and thus cripple the Government. The petitioners (copperheads) being called for were absent, or did not dare to answer; therefore the meeting voted to pass over the article in the warrant which called them together, and adjourned without a dissenting voice with cheers for the Government, army and old Vassalboro'. PARADOX.

☞ Gold was selling for 147 on Monday, in Boston.

THE TACONY'S BONDS. The Press says among the good likely to grow out of the capture of Lieut Read of the Tacony, is the recovery of the bonds given by the various vessels he had captured and released. These were delivered up by Lieut. Read, together with his commission, to Major Adams, commanding officer of Fort Preble. The Collector of Customs received several telegrams from underwriters and others in relation to these bonds, showing that they want them destroyed.

The bonds will undoubtedly be turned over to the U. S. Government.

ANOTHER CUTTER. Collector Jewett received a despatch from the Secretary of the Treasury yesterday afternoon, stating that the Revenue Cutter Dobbin, Captain Webster, now at Philadelphia, had been ordered to proceed to this port forthwith and report to the Collector.—Portland Press.

☞ The following of the 1st Maine, were among the killed and wounded at the second assault on Port Hudson, June 11th:

Killed—Henry Linwell, shot through the abdomen.

Wounded—C F Nichols, Co. G, finger; M Hogan, E, side; B F Dunbar, D, abdomen; E B Mayo, B, hand; O Lincoln, F, finger; Corp. T J Peary, C, thigh; Lieut G W Hubbard, I, thigh; O Richards, I, scalp.

☞ Henry Ward Beecher having crossed the Atlantic, thus reports—"I would not barter one square foot of land for the fee-simple of the whole Atlantic Ocean! I had rather be Napoleon on Helena than Nelson on this Continent! Blessed be the lands and thrice blessed, and the reverse on the sea! Amen."

☞ An examination was had yesterday by Assistant District Attorney George E B Jackson, Esq., of Lieut. Davenport, and the crew of the Revenue Cutter Caleb Cushing, which resulted in the honorable discharge of Lieut. D and all the crew. It was perfectly evident that they had nothing to do with the carrying off of the Cutter.—Press.

☞ The rebels impressed all the male inhabitants of Martinsburg, between the ages of sixteen and sixty, into the ranks.

☞ There were 268 persons whipped in England during 1862, by order of the various courts.

☞ There were consumed 236,000,000 of foreign eggs in England during 1862.

☞ The Machias Union says that on Monday last, at East Machias, John, son of Hon. John C. Talbot, had his left hand nearly severed at the wrist, by a broadaxe in the hands of a man who was driving a wedge. The man was at work on Mr. Talbot's barn. The boy came up unobserved, behind the workman, hence the accident.

Same day at Columbia, a son of Samuel Leighton aged about 14 years, in attempting to jump on to a truck wagon, fell under the wheels, which passed over him, injuring him so badly that he died in a short time.

☞ A scoundrel calling himself John C. Hailey has been swindling people in Bath and elsewhere by procuring subscriptions to aid in building an imaginary church in Kittery.

ANOTHER MAINE MAJOR GENERAL. Major General N S T Dana, to whom has been entrusted the defense of Philadelphia, was born in East Sullivan, Eastport, Me. His father was Capt N G Dana of the First U S Artillery, who died in 1838. He is a graduate of West Point, and 41 years of age. He was in the Mexican war, and for his gallantry in various battles was breveted Captain. He was subsequently employed in building forts in the Indian country, and in 1854 resigned his commission and settled at St Paul, Minnesota. When the war broke out he entered the volunteer service as Colonel of a Minnesota regiment and followed McClellan in his Peninsular and Maryland campaigns, having been made a Brigadier and placed in command of Lander's brigade after the decease of that officer. As was afterwards detailed for special service in Kentucky and Tennessee, and while on this duty was created Major General.

GREAT SALE OF PINE TIMBER LANDS.

THE ST. MARY'S FALLS SHIP CANAL COMPANY will offer, at public auction, in the city of Detroit, on the second day of September next, of Pine Timber Lands, lying in the State of Michigan, which were selected with great care nearly ten years since. It is estimated by good judges that these lands comprise at least one half of all the pine timber lands in the State, which are equal to them in quality and position.

The facilities which Michigan affords for manufacturing and transporting lumber to so great, the consumption is so large, and the area of pine timber lands between the Alleghanies and the Rocky Mountains is so small, that the value of these lands must yearly advance in a constantly increasing ratio.

For the purpose of the sale the lands have been arranged into a large number of groups, with a minimum price affixed upon each group at an average of about $4.50 per acre, so that the inducement to purchase is not only very great to lumbermen but also to others who may be seeking to make safe and profitable investments.

The stock of the Company will be received at par in payment of purchases made at the sale to an amount equal to 50 per cent. of the whole purchase money, the remainder, 50 per cent., to be paid in cash.

[Evening Despatches to the Times]

The Cause of Gen Hooker's Removal—Gen Meade Cuts the Enemy's Lines—Important from Mexico—Evacuation of the Capital—Brilliant Operations of our Cavalry in Pennsylvania.

NEW YORK, 1st

A correspondent of the Herald dating Maryland Heights 28th says Gen Hooker visited the Heights on the 27th ordered their evacuation and to destroy what could not be carried away He then informed Halleck what he had ordered when Halleck immediately countermanded the order On his way back from the Heights to Frederick General Hooker received the order removing him from the command of the army

NEW YORK, 1st

The Richmond Enquirer of the 29th says, if Gen Lee has gone to make Pennsylvania the seat of war and to make the war support the war, we presume that he would not give his troops a great license to pillage He would probably order French Major General to call before him the Sheriff of each County on his line of march and impose on each a certain provision of beeves horses clothing silver and gold, and all to be delivered at given points and given hours

LAFAYETTE, 30th

The rebels have fallen back 10 miles from Harrisburg

Gen Couch and staff have crossed the Susquehanna and occupy the south bank of the river

Gen Meade occupies Hanover York to night cutting the rebel lines

The rebels are rapidly concentrating in the interior

LANCASTER, 1st

Gen Pleasanton is making great havoc in the rear of the enemy's trains A great battle is thought to be imminent The rebels must fight on their ground or disastrously retreat

Stuart's cavalry after making nearly their entire circuit of Washington, capturing wagons, stores and men almost within range of the forts, leaving a harmless blow at the Baltimore and Ohio road and be were Frederick and Baltimore, and startling the Monumental City out of sleep at midnight have by this time it is believed joined Lee's forces in Pennsylvania.

NEW YORK, 1st

The Times Washington dispatch says Lee is drawing in his forces to the neighborhood of Shippensburg where a great battle will probably be fought The position of our army cannot be stated but the public may rest assured that it is rapidly forcing conclusions with the enemy

SAN FRANCISCO 30th.

Dates from the City of Mexico from the 30th of May to the 6th of June, are received. The news is of the highest importance. President Juarez and his cabinet had concluded to evacuate the city of Mexico, believing that the most effectual resistance to the French army would be made outside of the walls

On the 31st of May the government moved to San Luis du Potosi, taking all the moveable effects and munitions of war along.

On June 1st a meeting was held in the city at which the principal leaders of the Church party were present They sent a commission to General Forey to offer their allegiance to the Emperor Louis Napoleon

On June 5th the French division under Gen Baza occupied the main entrance to the city, and offered the Church party protection against the excited populace The whole French army was expected to occupy the capital on the 6th of June

Three newspapers had been established favoring the policy of the French One of these papers states that the occupation of the city of Mexico settles with absolute certainty that it is necessary to extirpate by root the democracy and no longer need there be even a dream of popular sovereignty

General Forey had issued a decree confiscating the property of all parties who have been or are in arms against the French

HEADQUARTERS Army of Potomac, Tuesday, eve, 8 P M

Early this morning Gen Gregg attacked Stuart and drove him all the way from Westminster to Hanover Penna a distance of 8 miles During the forenoon Gens Kilpatrick and Custer drove Stuart out of Hanover after a spirited fight, and they are still pursuing his part of his force going towards Gettysburg and part towards York

During the day Gen Buford drove a regiment of rebel infantry out of Gettysburg, who also retired in a north-westerly direction

You may expect to hear of brilliant news, the whole army is in splendid spirits.

General Meade's Address to the Army.

Emancipation Ordinance Passed in Missouri.

SLAVERY TO END JULY 4th, 1870.

Twenty-Fifth Maine on Their Way Home.

HARRISBURG, 1st—9 30 P M

A battle took place yesterday at Hanover Junction between Pleasanton and the rebel cavalry It lasted nearly the whole afternoon The result was the enemy lost 100 killed, wounded and prisoners besides six pieces of artillery — Our own is reported at 200 It is believed that times the cannonading was rapid and heavy

The national troops occupy York in force

This indicates a re that a battle has been fought today between Lee and Meade but to what extent and with what result is unknown nor is it likely to be known tonight

Heavy firing has been heard here the whole evening in the direction of Carlisle It is a long way off, and at times very rapid The river banks are lined with people listening and discussing probable results

WASHINGTON, 1st

Official advices from the army of the Potomac state that a portion of our cavalry under Colonel Kilpatrick had a fight on Saturday with the enemy's cavalry at Hanover We captured a battle flag, a Colonel, a Captain, and 45 privates. Fifteen or twenty of the enemy were killed

WASHINGTON, 2d

Letters to-day's date have been received from the army of the Potomac, in which the following facts are stated

Our last movements has been characterized by marked willingness on the part of the soldiers to undergo any fatigue within bounds of human endurance

The rebels recently sent only a small scouting or reconnoitering party to the vicinity of Frederick showing the general belief that there is no force of the enemy betw en that city and Hagerstown.

The stage proprietor this a m sent out his team from the former to the latter place" This fact is stated to show that intervening distance now believed to be safe to travellers

A portion of our forces surrounded Emmitsburg on Monday and captured without conflict, a battery, the only rebel force there, notwithstanding various reports to the contrary

Our pontoon bridges at Edwards Ferry have been taken up and safely secured by the engineer brigade

General Stahl was relieved from his cavalry command by General Hooker, on Sunday, and General Kilpatrick appointed in his place.

Brigadier General Copeland has been assigned to other duty, and his late command has been reorganized The very best spirit prevails in the army, and the hope of an early and decisive battle is the prevailing sentiment of the troops

That portion of Maryland occupied by our army is teeming with rich agricultural products, affording large supplies The most friendly disposition is evinced towards us by the inhabitants generally, and every precaut on is taken to prevent wanton destruction of property

The following circular has been issued

Headquarters Army o the Potomac, June 30th

The Commanding General requests that previous to the engagement soon expected with the enemy, corps and all other commanding officers address their troops explaining to them the immense issues involved in the struggle The enemy is now on our soil and the whole country looks anxiously to this army to deliver It from the presence of the foe Our failure to do so will leave us no such welcome as the swelling of millions of hearts with pride and joy at our success would give to every soldier of the army Homes, firesides and domestic altars are involved The army has fought well here tofore and it is believed it will fight more desperately and bravely than ever if it is addressed in fitting terms The corps and other commanding officers are authorized to order instant death to any soldier who fails to do his duty at this hour

By command of Maj Gen Meade,
(Signed S. WILLIAMS,
Assistant Adjutant General

Our cavalry is actively scouting in every direction and no fears of surprise are for an instant entertained by any one.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo, 1st

The following ordinance of emancipation was passed by the convention this afternoon by a vote of 51 ayes to 30 nays

Section 1—The first and second clause of the 26th section of the third article of the Constitution is hereby abrogated

Sec 2—That slavery or involuntary servitude, except in punishment for crime, shall cease to exist in Missouri on the 4th of July, 1870, and all slaves within the State on that day are hereby declared to be free Provided, however, that all persons emancipated by this ordinance shall remain under the control and be subject to their late masters or their legal representatives, as servants, during the following period, to wit,—those over forty years of age for and during their lives, those under 12 until they arrive at the age of 23, all other ages until the 4th of July, 1876 The persons, or their legal representatives, who, up to the time of emancipation, were owners of slaves hereby freed shall, during the period for which the services of such freed men are secured to them have the same authority and control and freedmen, for the purpose of securing possession and services of the same that are now held by the master in respect to his slaves provided, however, that after the said 4th of July, 1870, no person shall be sold to non-residents, or removed from this State by authority of his late owner or his legal representatives.

Sec 3. All slaves hereafter brought into the State, and not now belonging to citizens of the State, shall thereupon be free.

Sec 4. All slaves removed by consent of their owners to any adjoining State, after the passage by such State of an act or ordinance of secession, and thereafter brought into the State by their owners, shall thereupon be free.

Section 5—The General Assembly shall have no power to pass laws to emancipate slaves without the consent of their owners.

Section 6—After the passage of this ordinance no slaves in this State shall be subject to State county or municipal taxes.

Governor Gamble announced the withdrawal of his resignation He will therefore continue to serve as Governor until the election of his successor on the 18th of August 1864

The convention then adjourned sine die.

NEW YORK, 1st.

The Lancaster Express of Tuesday evening has the following important intelligence—

We have just learned from a reliable source that General Meade has taken Hanover Junction, thus cutting in two the rebel lines, and turning their right.

Gen Early has retreated from York and Ewell from in front of Harrisburg

The position of our army is such now that Lee must either beat a hasty retreat at great disadvantage, or give battle to General Meade on his chosen ground. In either event, it is of the utmost importance that the new levies be pushed on as rapidly as possible Now is the hour to strike the decisive blow.

WASHINGTON, 1st.

LARGE SALE OF FURNITURE!

On Thomas' Hill,

AT AUCTION!

J B FOSTER, Auctioneer

On Wednesday, July 15th, 1863

I SHALL SELL all the Lots now unsold, on the southerly side of James Street (as per Plan of Lots made for J W Low Esq and recorded in the Penobscot Registry of Deeds book 3, page 77)—beginning with Lo No 1, adjoining the residence of Mrs Bailey on Union Street

Lots No 1 2, 3 4 and 5, front on James Street, and run back 100 feet, to an alley 16 feet wide Lot No 1, is 100 feet on James by 100 feet on Union St. Lots 2, 3 4 and 5 are 77 by 100 feet Lots 8 9, 10 11, 12, and 13, are on the Easterly side of Thomas Street—and all but No 13, are 75 by 140 feet No 13, has a front of about 200 feet on James Street—and on Ohio Street about 300 feet, and adjoins the premises of Horatio Pitcher, Esq

To a resident of the city these lots need no commendation The stranger has only to examine, to admire them There is no locality in the city that offers so many attractions for residences as Thomas' Hill Already, two of the most elegant mansions in the city have been erected there and it cannot be long before all the vacant Lots will be taken up and occupied These Lots combine the advantage of convenient proximity to the city with the retirement of the country. The view from Thomas' Hill is beautiful and grand beyond description

This sale offers a rare opportunity to any one desirous of securing a desirable location for building, and to the speculator who wants to invest where he can be sure of a profit.

The sale will be positive One quarter of the purchase money to be paid down, the balance on any time to suit the convenience of the purchaser not exceed ng four years—with interest

A Plan of the Lots can be seen by calling upon the Auctioneer, or upon J W LOW

Military Movements in Pennsylvania.

Gov. Curtin in Philadelphia.

HARRISBURG, 1st—Midnight

The heavy firing heard in the direction of Carlisle has now ceased It is thought the rebels made an attack on the forces belonging to this department between Mechanicsburg and Carlisle. The result is not known at this time

A large fire is now seen in the direction of Carlisle What is burning is not known

It is thought here that Lee's headquarters are at Dover, York county

PHILADELPHIA 1st

The Press's Harrisburg despatch says a strong force under General Ewell marched up the valley today towards Carlisle A supply train was also sent out which encountered the rebels and withdrew to Harrisburg

NEW YORK, 1st

The Herald's Carlisle despatch, dated the 1st, 8 p m, says The last of the rebels left at 9 a m, by the Baltimore Pike They numbered about 12 000

The division under Johnson, that encamped two miles west of Carlisle, fled precipitately to Shippensburg

PHILADELPHIA, 1st.

Gov Curtin arrived in this city this evening, and addressed a large crowd in front of the Continental He said if Gen Meade's army is successful, the tide of war will turn in our favor but if defeated, we must fall back on our own resources Military men have concurred in the opinion, and properly, that the defences of Pennsylvania from invasion, and certainly of this city, will be formed upon the banks of the Susquehanna, and the call made upon Pennsylvania, has been responded to all through the State in a manner much beyond all official contemplation I ask for 1800 men from this city —how soon shall I have them? (A voice, "To morrow" Cheers) Do not measure it by days—let it be hours (Cheers, and cries of "Give us McClellan!") Let us not forget, as Pennsylvanians, that in the great struggle the rebels strike at Pennsylvania because she is loyal to the National Government (Cheers)

While there is one sentence of the Constitution remaining, and while there is one particle of government power left I will stand by it as your Governor, and I may expect you to do the same Let us all sustain our government and place our trust in the great God of nations

The Governor returned thanks to New York and New Jersey for their aid

It is stated that 5000 men have been enrolled in this city

The Union League has raised a brigade including a fine company of cavalry called the Dana troop, most of whose members have seen active service

Recruiting for colored regiments goes on briskly

MEMPHIS, Tenn, 28

Advices from Grant's army to boon on the 26th, says everything was working favorably and the siege was being pushed vigorously — 300 of the 4th Iowa cavalry in a scout near Bridgeport, Miss, had a fight with 500 rebel cavalry Our forces lost about 50 killed and wounded and missing, and one howitzer

General Sherman advanced on the 22 to meet Johnston, but could not find him or any considerable number of rebels It is ascertained with certainty that Johnston cannot muster 35 000 men all told, at last accounts Most of these troops were between Canton and Brandport

The rebels are making desperate efforts to interrupt navigation on the Mississippi river, below Memphis They have a battery of six guns at Catfish Point, opposite Greensville Gen Mormadukie is also using all his efforts to blockade the river

These matters are securing the prompt attention of proper military authorities

Scouts from Central Mississippi and Alabama report the feeling in regard to Vicksburg very responding, and repeats the repulse of Grant's army frequently circulated to cheer the people up

Jackson, Miss papers says Grant lost 10 000 men in his assault on the 20th, and Johnston was gaining advantages on Grant's rear

All is quiet along our lines

Colored Church, 5 miles from Tullahoma June 30th, 1863

The situation here is not materially changed A reconnoissance to-day was made within 3 miles of the rebel stronghold

The rain has continued for the last 4 hours and been unusually heavy

The roads are in terrible condition the movement almost prevented thereby, but with his unparalleled perseverance and persistence Gen Rosecrans has pushed on

Col Wilders' expedition returned to-day He burned bridges at Chester, and destroyed a large part of a railroad track He found only a small garrison at Chester whom he whipped and drove out, but immediately after he burned the bridge a large force of the enemy came

Whistling of locomotives at Tullahoma was distinctly heard yesterday This is the only foundation for the rumor that the rebels were retreating to Chattanooga

Little doubt is entertained that the enemy will fight us in the forts here, but their situation is very strange

Steadman's brigade made a reconnoissance today to within three miles of Tullahoma Two regiments of the enemy were encountered and an engagement ensued in which the enemy gave way without much resistance or much resistance The skirmishers of the 10th Ind and 4th Ky regiments were principally engaged

The Chattanooga Rebel of the 27 and 28th says two divisions are engaged at Liberty and Hoover's Gaps and mentions that reinforcements are being sent forward Five divisions passed up yesterday, and Jackson has been ordered to hold himself in readiness Rebel loss 100 killed and 400 or 500 wounded

The Rebel of the 27th has the following—

Richmond 25th.

Ten transports approached White House this forenoon and a small force landed It is reported their pickets have advanced to Burnstall Station.

The rebel says there is no question but the enemy is approaching and a great battle will be fought. Every preparation is being made to give them a warm reception.
